Regulations

Only one prize per person (sequence: regular prize money, then special prizes in the order listed above, place price comes before category price). Guaranteed prizes from 100 participants. Prizes will only be given to winners present at the awards ceremony!

Pairings will be done with Swiss Chess. Ranking for starting list: DWZ before Elo. In the event of a tie, the decision is made in this order: Buchholz, refined Buchholz rating (with one discard each), higher number of victories, direct comparison, distribution of the prize money. The current FIDE rules apply. Maximum 150 participants. In rounds 1–5, a maximum of 2 byes are possible per player (scoring: 0.5 points each). They must be registered before the end of the previous round, for the 1st round before the first match day.

The waiting time after the start of the round stated above is 60 minutes (FIDE Rule 6.7.1).

Electronic devices (mobile phones, etc.) may be placed in a designated bag next to the board, they must of course be switched off; the organizer assumes no liability (FIDE Rule 11.3.2.1).

Arbiter: Fabian Wölfle (IA)

Data Protection

By registering for the tournament, participants give their consent that personal data (Name, age group, club) and photos may be published. By registering, you also give consent to transmit the necessary data for rating purposes (DWZ/Elo evaluation) to the German Chess Federation (DSB) as well as FIDE.
